There is much talk of starting up the coal mines situated near Ardmore. It will give work to a good many. There is an abundance of the best coal in the world near Ardmore. It had better be developed than to pay such prices for coal.

TEXAS is giving possum and roast hog picnics. Some of the state papers of Texas are always roasting Hogg, as to that. We are glad to learn that they are now b-ginn'g on Mr. Possum.

A large number of Arapahoe Indians passed through Watonga on Wednesday of last week on their way to Left Hand's camp, thirteen miles south of Watonga, where they are holding their medicine dance.

The Greenville Herald says: A daily newspaper is a town's advertisement, attracting attention constantly to its people's interests. Every dollar given toward the support of your daily paper is so much spent for the welfare of your own individual interest.

The Dallas Parish—Laugdon sensation continues at fever heat. The prisoner Parish, is receiving hundreds of telegrams offering all kinds of assistance and filled with expressions of a firm conviction of his innocence. His cell is a veritable flower garden, numberless floral offerings being sent by sympathizing lady friends.

MARY AND HER LAMB.

Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow; it strayed away one summer day, where lambs should never go. And Mary sat her quickly down, and tears streamed from her eyes; she never found her lamb, because she did not advertise. And Mary had a brother John, who kept an Ardmore store; he sat him down and smoked a pipe, and watched the open door. And as the people passed along and did not stop to buy, John still sat down and smoked his pipe, and blinked his sleepy eye. And so the marshal closed him out, but still he lingered near; and Mary came with him, to drop a sympathetic tear. "How is it sister, can you tell why other merchants here, sell all their goods so readily, and thrive from year to year?" Remembering her own bad luck, the little maid replied: "Those other fellows get there, John, because they advertise, your daily paper is the place, and if you would be right, join quickly in a righteous race, and advertise in the Ardmoreite."

HOTEL FOR RENT.

The Cottage Home Hotel, opposite court house, 15 rooms well furnished with beds, etc. Call on or address R. H. Glenn, Ardmore, I. T.

Every one who has advertised houses to rent, or wants of any kind in this paper, have immediately been satisfactorily answered. Parties who have advertised for partners or business chances have found them. Last Sunday morning's paper contained over one column of want notices and paid locals. The object sought by parties advertising was obtained.

A Kansas printer, in making up the forms for the first time last week, got a marriage and grocer's notice mixed up so as to read as follows: "John Smith and Ida Onay were united in the holy bonds of sour kraut, which will be sold by the quart or barrel. Mr. Smith is an esteemed codfish at 10 cents, while the bride has many nice hams at a shilling a pound." No wonder that Kansas pays the smallest wages of any state in the union to printers.

This morning a man by the name of Johnson was driving through town in a wagon, when a spirited horse, tied to the rear end of the wagon, became frightened and upset the vehicle, in which were two boys, who jumped out and escaped injury. Luckily, the team was gentle and no damage was done, further than the fright occasioned to the occupants of the upturned wagon and some ladies in another just behind.

Wind, dust! Dust, wind!

City full. Everybody here from the country.

John Reynolds, author of "The Twin Hells," founded on the atrocities practiced in the Kansas and Missouri penitentiaries, harangued a crowd at the foot of the stairs leading to the Ardmoreite office this afternoon. His object was the sale of his book.
